Professional Experience:

Perspective-v (Aug-2021 to Continue)
--Full-Stack Web Developer

I'm a seasonal web developer working at Perspective-V on Asp.Net, and Angular for close to two years. I have experience in building both front-end and back-end web applications using these technologies. I gained hands-on experience with Ag-Grid, Nx-Workspaces, Angular DataTables, Syncfusion, and more. I have worked on variety of projects, Including:

- Learn Quran Live Academy (Asp.Net 6)
- Flat Management System (Angular)
- Client Management Portal (Angular + Asp.Net)
- Password Manager (Angular + Asp.Net)

GorsiShop (Jan-2019 to Mar-2020)
--Web Developer

In my time at Gorsi Shop, I have created their E-Commerce website in Wordpress as well as in Asp.Net Core MVC, named Gorsi Shop. Once in Asp.net Core and the second iteration in WordPress.

Gorsi Shop is an e-commerce website that allows whole sellers to buy any IT related items such as keyboards, mouse, printers, projectors etc. And a complete admin panel is implemented for the admins of the site to manage products, orders and view reviews on different projects.

Tools:
1st Iteration:
- Front-end: Html, Css, jQuery
- Back-end: Asp.Net Core 2.0, Entity Framework Core

2nd Iteration:
- WordPress
